Numb. 5651

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 14. to Tuesday June 17. 1718.

Kenſington, June 16.

AN Humble Addreſs of the Grand Jury of Barbados, was preſented to His Majeſty by the Agents of the ſaid Iſland, introduced by the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Craggs.

An Addreſs of the Preſident and other principal Inhabitants of the Iſland of St. Chriſtopher, has likewiſe been preſented to His Majeſty by Collonel Matthews, Lieutenant General of the Leeward Iſlands, and Lieutenant Govetnour of the ſaid Iſland of St. Chriſtopher, introduced by the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Craggs.

Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Algiers, March 29. On the 9th of this Month Ali Baſhaw, our Dey, fell ill of a Fever, of which he died the 25th in the Evening, having governed this State ſeven Years and ſeven Months, and concluded his Adminiſtration with this peculiar Felicity, that he left it in Peace, and died a natural Death, in that Station, which has never happened but to one of his Predeceſſors. The 26th, early in the Morning, a Divan was held, in which Mohamet, who was Treaſurer to the deceaſed Dey, was elected his Succeſſor, and immediately took Poſſeſſion of his Office. About an Hour after Mr. Thompſon, the Britiſh Conſul, went to Congratulate him upon his Advancement to the Government, and required him to confirm the Articles of Peace between His Majeſty of Great Britain and this State; the Dey received him with Marks of great Reſpect to His Majeſty, and of Kindneſs and Civility towards His Miniſter, and readily conſented to what the Conſul deſired, which he has ſince performed by executing a Confirmation in Form of the ſaid Treaty, accompanying it with Promiſes of uſing his beſt Endeavours to cultivate Peace and a good Correſpondence with the Britiſh Nation.

Belgrade, May 31. A conſiderable Number of Cannon has lately been brought hither by Water from Buda and other Places, to be planted upon the new Fortifications lately added to this Town, which by the great Care and Diligence of Count Odwyer, who has had the chief Direction of thoſe Works, and of the Repairs of the old ones, is put into a far better State of Defence than while it was in the Poſſeſſion of the Turks. The Train of Artillery for the Service of our Army is likewiſe arrived at Semlin, near which Place the Troops come in daily, and in very few Days the whole Army will be encamped. Count Mercy is drawing together another Body of Imperial Troops upon the Banks of the Danube, at ſome Diſtance below this Place. A Bridge is making on the Danube near Semendria, after the finiſhing of which, three other Bridges will be built on that River at proper Diſtances, and great Numbers of Pioneers and Country People are employed in clearing the Ways about our Camp, as well for the Conveniency of bringing Proviſions and other Neceſſaries to it, as for the Eaſe of the Troops whenever they ſhall have Occaſion to march. In the mean Time the Miniſters of the ſeveral Powers who are employed to negociate a Treaty of Peace between the Emperour, the Venetians, and the Ottoman Porte, are ſettling their Quarters at Paſſarowitz; but there is a Complaint of Scarcity of Proviſions, eſpecially in the Quarter of the Turkiſh Ambaſſadours, who have deſired the Imperialiſts that they may be ſupplied for their Money from our Side of the Country, which was readily granted, and Paſſes are given them for that Purpoſe. A Turkiſh Aga who came lately with ſome Diſpatches from Adrianople to the Miniſters of the Porte at the Congreſs, returning home through our Quarters, Care was taken to ſhew him the good Condition of our Troops, and the Forwardneſs they are in towards taking the Field, that he might be able to undeceive the Sultan, whom, as it was reported, Count Ragotzki had endeavoured to perſuade that the Deſigns of the Spaniards on the Emperour's Territories in Italy would cauſe ſuch a Diverſion of his Forces as to oblige him to weaken his Army in Hungary to a conſiderable Degree. The Turks are drawing together ſome Troops near Niſſa, but are ſo backward in their Preparations that their Army cannot be formed ſooner than the End of next Month.

Buda, June 4. Prince Eugene of Savoy arrived here the 2d Inſtant by Water from Vienna; he was received at the Water ſide by Baron Loſſenholz our Governour, and ſaluted by a treble Diſcharge of our Cannon. His Highneſs, without making any Stay, purſued his Voyage towards Belgrade, in order to take upon him the Command of the Imperial Army. Supplies of Men, Artillery and Warlike Stores are daily paſſing by this Place for the Army, the greateſt Part of which is already arrived at the general Rendezvous in the Plains of Semlin; and all Accounts agree, that never were ſeen Regiments more compleat and better appointed.

Copenhagen, June 11. The Britiſh Squadron under the Command of Admiral Norris, ſailed from hence the 9th Inſtant to the Bay of Kiog, and joined the Daniſh Squadron conſiſting of 12 Men of War, commanded by Admiral Raab, who has ſince ſent out a Frigate towards Bornholm, to get Intelligence of the Motions of the Swediſh Fleet. The King of Denmark is at preſent at Odenſee, attended by his Great Marſhal Count Callemberg, and M. Gabel his Secretary at War, but the reſt of his Miniſters continue here. Two of the Daniſh Men of War which ſailed ſome Time ago to the North Sea, are returned into our Road, the other three being found

ſufficient